

Working Groups – Collaborating Within Our Network and Creating Deeper Connections

CRA Working Group

TMC members have joined forces and meet regularly to exchange ideas and best practices, leveraging the collective resources of the network to strategize on their efforts to increase homeownership rates in underserved communities within their markets. Contact Jen Peachman or Ashleigh Alexander to join the discussion.

Servicing Professionals Working Group

As we started our working groups one of the most requested areas to start a group for was servicing - and when our members ask we listen! Our Servicing Professionals Working Group centered around ongoing collaboration on the challenges facing the servicing industry today and how our members are addressing them. If you a servicing professional looking to join the Servicing Working Group, reach out to Jen Peachman or Ashleigh Alexander to join the conversation.

Women's Networking Group

After hosting a women's roundtable discussion during our 2018 Winter Conference, it was clear that the ladies in our network were excited about staying connected! Our Women's Networking Group includes our lender members and preferred partners and discusses a variety of topics centered around supporting the continued development and advancement of women within the mortgage industry. Reach out Jen Peachman to learn more and develop deeper connections with the ladies that are a part of our growing network.

Marketing Professionals Working Group

Our Marketing Working Group is comprised of marketing professionals from within our lender member and preferred partner network. This group helps participants get new ideas, discuss opportunities and challenges in mortgage marketing, and connects them with subject matter experts within the multifaceted discipline of marketing. If you're interested in joining, contact Jen Peachman.

Capital Markets Working Group

Our highly anticipated Capital Markets Working Group was developed to connect, assist and offer educational resources and market insights to our members within the Secondary Markets sector. Through focused networking and collaboration, we are aiming at reviewing the key elements that will impact your organizations bottom line from lock desk policies and procedures, to best practices, risk management and beyond. If you're interested in joining, contact Jen Peachman or Christina Kirakossian.

What Can I Do To Get Involved?

Simply let any member of the TMC team know you're interested!
